LORD GANESHA

The chubby, gentle, wise, elephant-headed Ganesh, or Ganesha, is one of Hinduisms most popular deities. Ganesh is the remover of obstacles, the deity whom worshipers first acknowledge when they visit a temple.

Ganesh is also patron of letters and of learning; Ganesh is the legendary scribe who, using his broken tusk, which he often holds, wrote down parts of the Mahabharata epic. Here is our complete selection of statues of the Hindu god Ganesh.

SITTING GANAPATI

Ganapati the liberator from debts, grants moksha to His devotees. He has four arms and holds noose, a goad, his broken tusk and his favorite fruit – the rose apple. This is the sitting form of Lord Ganesha. Lord Ganesha is also considered as the God of auspicious beginnings and bestower of fortune in abundance.

MARBLE GANAPATI

In Ganesha sculptures the position of Lord Ganesh's trunk has a symbolic meaning. If the trunk turns to the Ganesh's left, that is the direction for success in the world. The right sided trunk stands for freedom from all worldly pleasures and the attainment of Moksha. We use best quality marbles in our sculptures, specifically designed by our Artisans from Rajasthan.

STANDING GANAPATI

Ganesha is the Hindu elephant-headed deity who removes obstacles and is thus the god of success; in this sense, he is a god of great importance for everyday existence. He was venerated first, before the worshipper turned to the other gods, in order to remove potential obstacles between the worshipper and the divine. You can witness a wide range of different mudras of Ganesha which will definitely wide up your ways to choose the best to suite your interiors.

DANCING GANAPATI

Lord Ganesha is also worshipped for being the patron of arts, literature and sciences. Arts here refer to performing arts as well as various forms of fine arts. He is often addressed as 'Rangaraj' which means a dancer and a performer par excellence. The Stone Studio can offer you all the beautiful dancing mudras of Lord Ganesha.

BUDDHA STATUES

The Stone Studio carries a wide range of Buddha sculpture in numerous sizes and styles. We carry large 8 foot garden Buddha sculptures as well as small Buddha statues for your meditation room, Zen garden, temple or home altar.

Turn any outdoor setting into a peaceful refuge or Zen meditation garden. Browse through our selection of large and small Buddha garden statues. If you do not see what you like, The Stone Studio can carve a custom Buddha statue to your specifications in any size or material.

The Stone Studio carries colored marbles from all over India and Vietnam in a wide range of colors and sizes. Each Buddha is hand carved by village artisans and completely one of a kind.

SITTING BUDDHA

Each Buddha pose tells a story about the Buddhist deity the statue is depicting and also portray their inspirational virtues. There are over 100 asanas illustrating the life journey of Buddha. Browse our website www.thestonestudio.in for lots of beautiful Buddha poses and bring divinity to your nest.

LAUGHING BUDDHA

Will it not feel great to come home and see an ever smiling face that has no expectations and is there only to give you good vibes, luck and fortune? The adorable plum always smiling buddha is one of the best Feng Shui gifts you can give someone to wish a happy and stress free life for them. Bring good luck to your home with our exclusive designs.

STANDING BUDDHA

The focus of any Buddha sculpture is the serene expression on the face of the Buddha. Just by looking at the Buddha's face you catch a glimpse of what lies at the heart of Buddhist teachings. Buddha statues are one of the icons that help to bring in peace and harmony. Find different designs in standing Buddha section and convert your place into peaceful abode.

SLEEPING BUDDHA

The reclining or sleeping pose of Buddha is one of the most poignant ones; it depicts the last moments of Gautam Buddha’s mortal life before he achieved Nirvana or freedom from the cycle of rebirth. However, it is not meant to induce gloom; in fact, the reclining Buddha is supposed to be an encouragement to people for seeking internal harmony.

VISHNU & LAKSHMI

View all our Hindu god Vishnu statues. Vishnu is one of the principal Hindu Gods, worshiped as the protector and preserver of the world and restorer of dharma (moral order). Vishnu is known chiefly through his avatars (incarnations), particularly Rama, Krishna and Buddha. In theory, Vishnu manifests a portion of himself anytime he is needed to fight evil, and his appearances are innumerable; but in practice, ten incarnations of Vishnu are most commonly recognized.

VISHNU AVATARS

It is believed that whenever there is an evolution in the history of mankind, Vishnu incarnates on earth to restore the cosmic order.Lord Vishnu and his 10 incarnations or swaroop. Collectively known as Dashavatara or ten incarnations, the Preserver of the Universe, takes one form, each time the mankind is in danger or when evil and tyranny overpowers righteousness.

VISHNU LAKSHMI

Vishnu is meaning and Lakshmi is speech, Vishnu is knowledge and Lakshmi is insight, Vishnu is behavior and Lakshmi is conduct. Bringing Dashavatar to home with goddess of wealth will bring emmense prosperity to your home.

MARBLE VISHNU LAKSHMI

Explore the widest range of Vishnu Lakshmi statue in different stones and designs. The Stone Studio is famous for its customised products which can work according to our customers choice of stone as well as budget. We work with best artisans from all over India to bring out the authenticity to our designs.

RADHA KRISHNA STATUE

Krishna is the eighth incarnation or avatar of Lord Vishnu. Krishna is famous for playing the flute. His flute playing would beguile the cow herder's daughters whom were all in love with Krishna. Krishna, besides being a hero and central figure of Bhagavad-Gita, was seen as an affirmation of life. He loved life and lived his time on this earth to the fullest.

White, red and black marble statues are easy to take care of as they just need some annual upkeep to keep them looking as they did when they were first carved.

"Use a cotton cloth and gently buff the surface of the statue to bring out the natural polish of the stone"

LORD KRISHNA

Krishna, the meaning of the word in Sanskrit is all-attractive, He is the Supreme Personality of Godhead, also called as God of gods. Explore our Krishna statues in marble & stone. Lover or Radha, player of the flute, avatar or Vishnu, view Krishna statues in a variety of poses.

BAAL GOPAL

An idol of Lord Krishna in his ‘Baal Gopal’ form and the throne, flute, clothes and crown along with it brings immense pleasure of a baby to house. It is historically one of the early forms of worship in Krishnaism and an element of the history of Krishna worship in antiquity.

KRISHNA WITH ANIMALS

Krishna is full of compassion and love for all jiva atma irrespective of its being a cow or not.Krishna is known as Rishikesh that is controller of senses.It is through His control of senses that He through His Maya gives the Prarabdha of all the jivas and keeps the Kalachakra move from creation,maintenance and destruction.

RADHA KRISHNA

Radha Krishna has always been symbolised as a benchmark of love. These two words in our Indian history are never been taken separately. Whenever we talk about Radha, it is impossible for any human being to not to think about Lord Krishna.They are the representation of the purest bond, love, and emotions. It is their purity and serenity only which has made their love and care unforgettable. Check out our beautiful collection of Radha Krishna. Visit: www.thestonestudio.in

HINDU GODDESS STATUES

Hindu Goddesses in the trinity are Lakshmi (goddess of prosperity and wealth) and Goddess Saraswati (goddess of knowledge and learning). Goddess Parvati is the second wife of Lord Mahadev, one of the supreme Hindu deity of Trinity of Hindu god.

The Stone Studio provides you the widest range of stone Goddess murtis by keeping in mind the different mudras and the beliefs of our different devotees.

The Stone Studio brilliantly works with customised designs suggested by our customers. View all our Hindu Goddess Durga, Saraswati, Lakshmi, Kali and Shakti Statues. The Hindu Goddesses are the most powerful aspect of Divinity. Goddess manifests fearlessness and patience, and never loses her sense of humor, even during spiritual battles of epic proportion.

SHIVA STATUES

Shiva is both the great ascetic and the master of fertility, and he is the master of both poison and medicine, through his ambivalent power over snakes. Shiva has three eyes, the third eye bestowing inward vision but capable of burning destruction when focused outward. He wears a garland of skulls and a serpent around his neck and carries in his two (sometimes four) hands a deerskin, a trident, a small hand drum, or a club with a skull at the end.

HANUMAN STATUES

Hanuman is worshipped as a subsidiary figure in temples dedicated to Rama or directly in shrines dedicated to Hanuman himself. For his service to Rama, Hanuman is upheld as a model for all human devotion

LINGA

In temples and in private shrines, Shiva is also worshipped in the form of the lingam, a cylindrical votary object that is often embedded in a yoni, or spouted dish.

SHIVA NANDI

Shiva’s vehicle in the world, his vahana, is the bull Nandi; a sculpture of Nandi sits opposite the main sanctuary of many Shiva temples.
